Coording to all pur Advices from Ruffia, g. Preparations are making there for fupporting us, it cale of a War, an maintage the Expire, if no Rupture should happen. The Successor to our Crown has been received, in his Passage to this Capital, with his Paffage to this Capital, with Ithe Marks of Loyalty and Refpect possible ; and he is w make his Publick Entry here To-morrow, for which might Preparations have been making for a Week past. The French Minister has just received a Courier, with News of the Marquis de la Chetaroie being on his and hither, in his Way to Petersburgh; but with what Commission he is charged, either for that Court, or this, is at present a Secret, and will probably remain so.

Naples, October 15. The last Letters from Reggio say, that the Plague is in a manner extinct in Calabria; but a there are still some People ill of Purple Pevers, they are not entirely easy, but think some Precautions are yet necessary. From Messina they write, that the Inhainns are entirely recovered; and that the few that are now in the Infirmaries, labour under common Difeases, and are in no manner of Danger. The same Letters add, that at a Place called Farro, four Brothers had lately died, by making use of a Cloth which their Mother, who of the Plague, bad left them. Last Sunday feretal Detachments marched towards our Frontiers, her great Convoys of Provisions are fent daily e are of Opinion, that they will shortly join the Spaniards; and others believe they will do nothing, sales the Austrians should attempt to invade our Domi-

Rimini, October 22. Prince Lobkowitz, who comoffity Dispositions for attacking us directly; upon which a grand Council of War was hold this Moroing, in which we have Resion to think a Resolution was taken of retiring as fast, and as far as possible. We are led to this Notion, from the Count de Gages demanding to this Notion, from the Count de Gages demanding was Waggons of this City in 24 Hours; and from his feding his Baggage and Servants to Pefero, where it is not likely we shall enjoy Rest long; fince the Hustars shall enjoy Rest long; fince the Hussars here already began to push us from Post to Post, and are already advanced within a few Leagues of this Place.

Genna, Odlober 19. We are more and more alarmed on the Subject of the late Treaty between the Queen of Hungary and the King of Sardinia; which however falutary to them, is like to be very destructive to us-by this Treaty, the King of Sardinia is to enter into im-mediate Possession of the Marquiste of Final, which we purchased from the late Emperor in 2713, for 1,200,000 Pieces of Eight. It is true, that the King of Sudinia is to repay us this Sum of Money before he takes Possession of it; but then there is this unucky Creumfance, that he infifts upon its being put in as good a Condition as when we received it; that is to fay, the Citadel, and its Fortifications, should be reflered, which Me demolished; the repairing of which will cost more Money than we are to receive, besides the dreadful Internetience of having such a Fortress in our Neighbourhood. Private Letters from Corsics say, that Things there in their old Situation; that is to fay, the Peop bein Arms, and have appointed a Regency for the Ma-lagement of all Affairs, Civil and Military; and that our Commissary-General having observed their Strength, our Commissary-General having observed their pro-nal considered their Disposition, had not thought pro-tes to publish the Answers swhich the Senate had given to their last Propositions; being apprehensive that this their last Propositions; being apprehensive that this might provoke them to commit immediate Hostilities.

Chamberry, October 24. The Spanish Cavalry have legan to enter this Duchy, but the Infantry will not live so soon as was expected. The Savoyards pursued item in their Retreat, and did a great deal of Michael, momuch, that besides soo Mules laden with Baggage, at the Furniture of the Infant Don Philip's Chapel, and what belone'd to his Chaple, and what belone'd to his Chaple, and what belone'd to his Chaple, and what helpone'd to his Chaple, and what helpone'd to his Chaple, and what helpone'd to his Chapel, and what helpone'd to his chapel has not to the latest the l what belong'd to his Chaplains, they have actually taken his own Tent, his Jewels, and other Things, to the Value of 200,000 Livres. This Accident happen'd theo' Storm, or Whirlwind, which terrified the French and Sounds Soldiers to fuch a dogree, that they abandoned their Artillery and Buggage, and endeavoured to fecure themselves, as well as they could, by the most precipi-the Flight. His Royal Highness's Army, which march's from hence 24,000 flrongs does not now confist quite of 16,000 Men.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Briftol, October 29. Tuesday last as one Miller, a Coal-miner, was either letting down, or drawing up out of the Ledge Works in Kingswood, a Stone fell off the Side of the Pit, which beat him out of the Rope; by which Accident his Scull was fracts, d, and he did

Last Thursday Night the Coachman of Sir Robert Cann was found robb'd, and almost murder'd, in the Road leading to Mr. Cuzzins's at Redland. He was first discover'd by a Butcher who had been with his Horse to the Field. He hearing a Person cry out, was much frighten'd; and went directly to the House of Mr. Smith, the Swan in Stokes-Croft, where he got Affiftance, and a Lanthorn, and brought the almost murder'd Person to the said House. He said he was attack'd by Footpads, who knock'd him off his Horse, and robb'd him of his Watch and Money. His Wounds were dress'd, and all imaginable Care taken of him, but he died in a few

A Tinker and his Wife are taken up on the London Road, on a violent Suspicion of murdering a poor Wo-man. In one of their Pockets were found two Fingers, which they had cut off the Hand of the Decased, in order to get her Rings.

Verses occasion'd by the Sickness of Richard Nash, Esq. ar Bath.

Say, must the gentlest Friend of human kind, Of most refin'd --- of most diffusive Mind?
Must Nash himself beneath those Ailments grieve? He felt for all-and felt but to-relieve-To heal the Sick-the Wounded to restore-To heal the Sick-And bid desponding Nature mourn no more.

Thy quickning Warmth, O let thy Patron seel, Improve thy Springs with double Pow'r to heal. Improve thy Springs with double Fow to near.

Quick hither all inspiring Health, repair,

And five the Gay—and Wretched, from Despair!

Thou only † E/ca's drooping Sons canst chear.

And stop the lost-ey'd Virgin's trickling Tear;

In Murmurs who their † Monarch's Pains deplote,

While Sickness faints——and Pleasure is no more. O let not Death with hafty Strides advance; Thou, mildest Charity, avert his Lance! His threatning Pow'r, celestial Maid, defeat; Nor take him with Thee to thy well-known Seat; Leave him on Earth, fome longer Date, behind To blefs—to polifh—and relieve Mankind!
Come then, kind Health! O quickly come away—Bid Nash revive—and all the World be gay.
